Budget
Mike Beltinck,
Chief Financial Officer

The Board had a discussion. There were a series of questions and answers covering a range of factors, which included questions related to the budget, general fund balance, food service budget, Keeler kitchen renovations and staffing, salaries/contracts, rising prices of food, free and reduced meals, fuel, capital outlay, contingencies, and a rainy-day fund (which is also known as the fund balance).

For consideration of the retirees and guests, President Pridemore suggested that the Budget presentation be wrapped up. The Board was asked to send any additional questions to Mike Beltinck.

Superintendent Witt stated that on June 27, 2022, they would bring forward a recommendation relative to the 2022-2023 Budget for consideration by the Board.
